

Shortlisted for a HSJ Award under the category of Mental Health Innovation 2006

Newham Asian Women's Project
invite you to the launch of our self-harm DVD
Everybody Hurts

Thursday 17th January 2008 (11.30 - 2.00pm)

Stratford Circus
Theatre Square
Stratford
London E15 1BX

Lunch and Refreshments will be served

RSVP: Kamna Muralidharan, Newham Asian Women's Project
22 Deanery Road, Stratford, E15 4LP
Tel: 0208 519 9136
Email: kmuralidharan@nawp.org

EVERYBODY HURTS

Everybody Hurts is a resource developed by Newham Asian Women's Project through extensive consultations with young people and professionals from across England, Scotland and Wales on the issue of self-harm.

Everybody Hurts has been written, produced, filmed, directed and acted by young people in collaboration with The Mouth That Roars and has been funded by Diana, Princess of Wales Memorial Fund.

Agenda

11.30am - 11.45am - Registration

11.45am - 1.15pm - Speakers & Screening of Everybody Hurts

1.15pm - 2.00pm - Networking Lunch

Copies of the DVD (which is accompanied by a training booklet) purchased on the day will receive a 20% discount

Diana
THE WORK CONTINUES

